HIGH COURT, ENGLISH DEPARTMENT, CIVIL.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 8328-G.—The following rules made by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal under clauses (b) and (j) of sub-section (1) of section 50 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 (VIII of 1890), are published for general information.

By order of the High Court,

N. G. A. EDGLEY,

Registrar.

HIGH COURT,
English Department,
CIVIL,
The 5th December 1922.

RULES.

Insert the following after Rule 43, at page 71, Chapter II, Volume I, of the Court's General Rules and Circular Orders, Civil:—

“ Rules framed by the High Court under section 50 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 (VIII of 1890), for the guidance of guardians ad-litem of minor defendants and minor respondents.”

I.—ORIGINAL SUITS.

43A. (1) Where there are both major and minor defendants and there is no appearance, the guardian should communicate with the natural guardian of the minor as well as with the major defendants by registered reply post-card in which the subject-matter of the suit should be briefly stated.

(2) Where the sole defendant is a minor, the aforesaid communication should be addressed to his natural guardian.

(3) If no response is received to the communication mentioned in sub-rules (1) and (2) or if the response is not helpful and the guardian is unable to have a personal interview with the defendants or their agents, he should report the fact to the court with a statement of the circumstances and apply for leave to go to the locality for necessary enquiry.

(4) The guardian's report on such local enquiry, if permitted, should contain the following particulars:—

(a) Date and hour of departure for the locality.

(b) Mode of journey, viz., whether by rail or steamer or boat or road.

(c) Date and hour of reaching the locality.

(d) The names of persons who identify the minor.

(e) Age of the minor as stated by the minor's people and as estimated by the guardian.

(f) The names and residences of persons in whose presence the enquiry is held.

(g) Whether the minor has any defence.

(h) If there is defence what is the nature of it and what benefit is expected to accrue to the minor out of the defence.

(i) Whether the minor or his people are able and prepared to meet the costs of the defence, and, if not, what is the probable amount of such costs.

(j) If no defence is filed, the reasons thereof together with the statements of the persons on whose report the decision is arrived at.

(5) In case the court refuses to grant leave for local enquiry, the guardian will proceed according to the instructions of the court given in each case.

(6) Where in response to the communication mentioned in sub-rule (2) or otherwise, the minor or his natural guardian, or any other persons on his behalf, come and see the guardian, his subsequent proceedings and report should conform as far as applicable to sub-rule (4) (g) to (j).

(7) The guardian's report mentioned in sub-rules (4) and (6) may contain such other facts as he may think necessary to bring to the notice of the court.

(8) In petty rent suits and money suits the court shall exercise stricter vigilance before granting leave to the guardian ad-litem to go to the locality for enquiry.

II.—APPEALS.

(9) The foregoing rules will apply mutatis mutandis to the guardians of minor respondents subject to the following rules.

(10) If no response is made to the registered post-card mentioned in sub-rule (1), he should, before applying for leave to go to the locality, similarly communicate with the pleader who conducted the case in the lower court on behalf of the minor or his predecessor-in-interest, and ascertain from him if possible the probable cause of the non-appearance of the minor, reporting the result to the court.

(11) If the step taken under the last preceding sub-rule does not elicit any satisfactory results, the guardian should consult the record and submit a report to the court in which he should state whether in his opinion the judgment and decree of the lower court can be supported and if such opinion is in the affirmative, why he should not argue the case himself before the court. A written note on the merits of the case should accompany the report.

(12) An amount estimated to cover the actual travelling and halting expenses of the guardian, not exceeding the scale laid down by Rule 43 B, will be required by the court to be deposited by the party at whose instance the guardian is appointed before an order is passed for a local enquiry mentioned in sub-rule (3). The amount so deposited or so much of it as may be found due will be paid out to the guardian when he has submitted his report mentioned in sub-rule (4).

(13) The actual postal charges for communication mentioned in sub-rules (1), (2) and (10) will be deposited and paid to the guardian along with the fee prescribed by the High Court.

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE.

43B. The rate of travelling allowance to be allowed to the guardian, both in the case of an original suit and of an appeal, shall be that admissible to a second class officer under the Civil Service Regulations with a daily fee of Rs. 4 for the days for which he may be away from the head-quarters.

ORDERS BY THE COMMISSIONER, AJMER-MERWARA.

ORDER.

Ajmer, the 8th December 1922.

No. 17656—XXIII-7.—In exercise of the powers delegated to him by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, under sub-section (3) of section 43 of the Co-operative Societies Act II of 1912, the Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, makes the following rules under clauses (b) and (i) of sub-section (2) of the said section 43 in respect of the matters specified in clauses (a) and (b) of Rule 29 of the rules framed by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner under the aforesaid section and published in his Notification No. 1106/1385, dated the 9th August 1918, as subsequently amended by his Notification No. 1606/1385, dated the 7th October 1921:—

Rules under section 43 (2) (b).

I. A registered society shall keep such accounts and books as may from time to time be prescribed or approved by the Registrar, Co-operative Societies, Ajmer-Merwara.

II. Every registered society shall be liable to pay every year on or before the 31st December of each year such audit fee as the Registrar may prescribe with the previous sanction of the Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, and the fee so collected shall be utilized for the employment of staff to be entertained for the purpose of auditing and supervising the societies.

III. The powers to appoint, suspend, dismiss or punish such staff shall absolutely rest with the Registrar, so far as the menial establishment is concerned. In the case of superior staff (except secretaries) such powers of the Registrar shall be subject to confirmation by the Commissioner. As regards secretaries, such powers shall be exercised by the societies concerned with the approval of the Registrar, and in cases where they fail to do so, the Registrar's orders shall be final.

Rule under section 43 (2) (i).

I. The Registrar may require the Secretary or any other officer of a registered society appointed for this purpose by the Committee to submit a periodical return of receipts and disbursements on such dates and in such form as he may prescribe and to furnish such other information and returns as he may consider necessary and such Secretary or other officer shall comply accordingly.
